

Inside this issue:

Guests from Furu- höjdskyrkans	2
Guests from Finspong	2
Prayer points	2
Swedish Volunteers in HCC	3
HCC youth at Sweden	4
Congratulation	5
Donate	6

Guests from Furuhöjdskyrkans

We were privileged to have guests from Furuhöjdskyrkans Sweden. They joined us in our Christmas Celebration and in witnessing the progress of Church Renovation.

It was an opportunity to express thanks to Patrick, Diana and Luvisa for their active involvement in Church ministry.

Guests from Finspong, Sweden

Par, Sophia, Johan and Monica are visiting HCC, India these days. These friends are from our sister Church at Finspong, Sweden. They intend to meet and learn from farmers supported by HCC over the decade. They plan to interact with these farmers and know about the advanced techniques followed in agriculture. They want to know their socio-economic conditions. They plan to share their expertise with these farmers. HCC welcomes individuals and groups keeping an desire to learn Indian scenario from a Church's perspectives.

Prayer Points:

- Pray for Pastors, Evangelists and Staffs involved in social development
- Pray for rehabilitated commercial sex workers as they cope in new social set ups
- Pray that a new church hall is constructed at Odisha

Swedish Volunteers in HCC

Alinda Wangberg, Lovisa Engdahl & Erik Ohlen are volunteers from Sweden. During their three to four months of stay with HCC India, they will be involved in teaching the slum children of Ramtekdi and students of St.

Hilda school, Pune. They want to learn more about the work of HCC. They hope to be part of the congregation and meet a lot of people.

Youth keeping a desire to work with poor in Indian context are most welcome

HCC Youth at SVF, Sweden

Vijay K. Davidson & Joel P. Kale from HCC have the opportunity to be part of international learning at Södra Vätterbygdens Folkhögskola (SVF), Sweden. During these five months of stay i.e. from January to May 2012, both will learn Bible, culture & language at Swedish context. They will also share experiences and learning from Indian point of view. They will also represent HCC in local congregations of MCCS. Our best wishes for them during the course period in Sweden.

Congratulations

On behalf of the Hindustani Covenant Church, we want to congratulate Mrs. & Mr. Praful G. Kale and Mrs. & Mr. Philip Nadvi for happily completing 25 years of their wedded life. We join them in their silver jubilee celebration and in giving thanks to the Lord Almighty. Our best wishes are with them when they move ahead.

Donate: As God works in your heart to support the ministry of HCC you can send your donation through our Bank Account Number: 11099452076, Hindustani Covenant Church, Pune Main Branch, Branch code - 0454

For more information Contact: HCC, Church Centre, 15, Solapur Road, Pune—1, Phone: +91 2026360944, Email: hcc_india@bsnl.in; pme@cssind.org, Website: www.hccindia.org, Facebook: Hindustani Covenant Church